

TFAA PACKET ORDER FORM

The Torpedo Factory Artists' Association has a packet of information available to both individuals and organizations seeking to create venues similar to the Torpedo Factory Art Center.

OPERATIONS, HISTORY, GOVERNING DOCUMENTS, AND MORE

The packet contains a wealth of information including an overview of TFAA operations as well as history of the Artists' Association and building. Also included: TFAA governing documents (Constitution, By-Laws, House Rules), sample studio leases, and more. These documents were developed over a 30-year period with the assistance of legal counsel.

VISITOR IMPACT STUDY

The Torpedo Factory Art Center Visitor Impact Study was commissioned by the TFAA and prepared by the International Institute of Tourism Studies at the George Washington University, Washington, D.C., under the direction of Dr. Douglas C. Frechling, Associate Professor of Tourism Studies. The 16-page report was submitted on June 1, 1994, to the Alexandria City Council. Dr. Frechling's cover letter stated, "It is our hope that this study will shed light on the contribution of the Torpedo Factory Art Center to the economy of the City of Alexandria, and that it will assist those who manage and study other cultural attractions in understanding similar phenomena."

PROMOTIONAL DVD

A seven minute DVD will allow you to see the building and artists that make up the Torpedo Factory Art Center.

ON TARGET: Stories of the Torpedo Factory Art Center's First 25 Years

This 154-page book was written by one of the original founders of the Torpedo Factory Art Center, Marian Van Landingham, with contributions from many artists over the first 25 years. This book tells the stories of the trials and tribulations of the original artists, the city, and community of Alexandria and how the Art Center has managed to maintain its original character and mission.

NOTE: TFAA is not a 501(c) nonprofit organization. This packet does not contain financial figures or budgets, nor is it a formal business plan.
