WHAT WAS THE UNCONVENTIONAL CONVENTION?

The Unconventional Convention: Starting and Operating Community Visual Art Centers was held at the Torpedo Factory Art Center in Alexandria, Virginia on May 21 and 22, 2004, for the benefit of both artists and the public.

The program featured five panel sessions with experts and representatives from the following fields: Cultural Tourism; Visual Art Center Prototypes; Architectural Renovations and Occupational Health Considerations; Community Outreach and Support; and Self-Governance. One of the main goals of the conference was to examine the economic and cultural advantages of public visual art centers. Another was to learn from established organizations while providing existing centers an opportunity to compare experiences. It was a huge success, with over 100 attendees from all over the country and Canada.

WHO SPONSORED THE CONVENTION?

This conference was sponsored and organized by the now-dissolved Alliance for the Advancement of Community Visual Art Centers (AACVAC) with associate sponsorship by Americans for the Arts, Partners for Livable Communities, The National League of Cities, the Friends of the Torpedo Factory Art Center, and Home & Design Magazine.
